Reason for CARB: (1) LEVEL II – DISCIPLINE MONITORING:

Police Officer Kevin Kavanagh was placed in Level II – Discipline Monitoring on December 10, 2007, as a result of his disciplinary history. He is expected to complete monitoring on June 10, 2009.

(2) CHARGES AND SPECIFICATIONS #83372/07:

On September 3, 2007, Police Officer Kevin Kavanagh, while off duty, attended a barbeque with friends where he consumed alcoholic beverages. Mr. C [REDACTED] R [REDACTED] the complainant stated he was standing outside his residence and overheard several people shouting at Police Officer Kavanagh. Mr. R [REDACTED] said the people were telling Police Officer Kavanagh not to drive his car because he was intoxicated. Mr. R [REDACTED] approached Police Officer Kavanagh in his vehicle in an attempt to prevent Police Officer Kavanagh from driving his vehicle at which point Police Officer Kavanagh got out of his vehicle and grabbed Mr. R [REDACTED] by his tie. Police Officer Kavanagh swung his asp hitting Mr. R [REDACTED] in the head and yelled "I'm in the NYPD and I can do whatever I want." Mr. Respol called 911 for police assistance.

Sergeant L [REDACTED] 109th Precinct, arrived and observed Police Officer Kavanagh with blood shot eyes, slurred speech and a smell of alcohol on his breath. Sergeant L [REDACTED] said Police Officer Kavanagh was trying to find the keys to his vehicle which was not running. Sergeant L [REDACTED] also noticed a puddle of vomit outside of Police Officer Kavanagh's vehicle. EMS was called to the scene for Mr. R [REDACTED] who refused medical treatment. Mr. R [REDACTED] also declined to press criminal charges but wanted Police Officer Kavanagh to be "scolded."

Police Officer Kavanagh was charged with harassing and striking a person in the head with an ASP baton while being unfit for duty.

Police Officer Kavanagh was placed on Modified Assignment September 13, 2007.
